

COURSE TITLE:

LANDSCAPE GEOGRAPHY, LANDSCAPE RESEARCH (PRACTICE)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Landscape research practice is based on the theoretical course. This practice requires innovative scientific activity by students: students should process a practical or a theoretical topic in field of landscape science. This work comprises studying of original papers (using by science direct and springer link), integration of knowledge and making conclusion. Final outcomes of the work is a seminar essay and an oral presentation (10+5 min).

TEACHER:

Zoltán Szalai

associate professor